- The quantities indicated in the lot are approximate, and MSTC does not provide any warranty, express or implied, regarding the quantity and/or the fitness of the goods for any particular purpose. The sale value is calculated and collected based on the approximate quantity indicated in the event. Where an item is sold on a lot basis, the buyer shall not be entitled to any refund of the sale value. MSTC reserve charge of the transaction fee (as applicable) on account of short delivery. In such cases, the buyer shall also not be entitled to claim any damages, interest, compensation, or any other claim whatsoever. In the event that the quantity delivered in a lot exceeds the approximate quantity specified in the catalogue/s bid document, and such excess lies within the permissible variation range of +/- 10% (or as otherwise specified in the catalogue/bid document), the seller may, at its sole discretion, offer the excess quantity to the buyer. Such excess shall be released only upon the buyer depositing the pro-rata sale value for the additional quantity along with the final instalment payable to MSTC/buyer. The buyer shall be allowed to deposit the balance sale value for the excess quantity within ten (10) days from the date of intimation of such excess by the seller/buyer. Failure to make such payment within the stipulated period shall attract ground rent at the rate specified in the catalogue/bid document, calculated on a per week or per month basis.
